Stainless Steel Tapered Whip

The 1C-56 Stainless Steel Tapered Mobile Antenna:

Hustler's 102 inch whip antenna is made from the finest 17-7 ph tapered stainless steel which resists bending and kinking.

This material is so tough it can be bent 180 degrees and will spring back to its original shape. Excellent for all off-road terrain. Dissipation tip to reduce unwanted static buildup.

Full-size, quarter-wave whips will give you the absolute best transmitting and receiving possible. Fits all 3/8 x 24 threaded mounts
